

Torrington Fund Small Grants.

The Torrington Fund is managed by the Heart of England Community Foundation. The main purpose of the Torrington Fund is to support people living with physical/ learning disabilities to lead full and active lives.

Fund Aims

The aim of the fund is to support organisations addressing the local needs in Coventry and Warwickshire which will enable people with physical/learning disabilities to lead more active lives. Grants will be considered from charities, constituted voluntary and community groups that focus on supporting people living with physical/learning disabilities to achieve the following:

- To learn skills to help them live more independent lives.
- Participate in a wide range of social activities.
- Activities which help them to stay active
- Activities which enable families / carers to have a break.

Available Funding

Grants of up to £2,000 are available and must be spent within a year.

Priority Area

Grants are available for projects in Coventry and Warwickshire.
